COLLEGE

DRAX DAY

6th July, 1967

DRAX DAY SERVICE

at the

ST. DUNSTAN'S CHAPEL, JAMAICA COLLEGE

6th July, 1967, at 8.00 a.m.

Service Conducted by Rev. J. McNab, S.T.M., B.D.

Mr. W. H. Middleton, B.S.C., Headmaster

The Congregation is asked to stand when the Choir enters the Chapel

HYMN No. 485

Eternal Ruler of the ceaseless round
Of circling planets singing on their way;
Guide of the nations from the night profound
Into the glory of the perfect day;
Rule in our hearts, that we may ever be
Guided and strengthened and upheld by Thee.

We are of Thee, the children of thy love,
The brothers of Thy well-beloved Son;
Descend, O Holy Spirit, like a dove
Into our hearts, that we may be as one:
As one with thee, to whom we ever tend;
As one with him, our brother and our friend.

We would be one in hatred of all wrong,
One in our love of all things sweet and fair,
One with the joy that breaketh into song,
One with the grief that trembleth into prayer,
One in the power that makes the children free
To follow truth, and thus to follow thee.

O clothe us with Thy heavenly armour, Lord,
Thy trusty shield, Thy sword of love divine;
Our inspiration be Thy constant word;
We ask no victories that are not thine;
Give or withhold, let pain or pleasure be;
Enough to know that we are serving Thee.

Then shall the Minister say:

We are gathered here in the sight of God, and in the presence of one another, compassed about by a cloud of unseen witnesses, to give thanks to God for the manifold blessings he has vouchsafed unto this school.

For the wise thoughts and generous counsels which moved our fathers to found this school, may God's holy Name be praised. Amen.

For the devoted service of those who have taught in this place, for their words of life, their understanding hearts, and their abiding influence, may God's holy Name be praised. Amen.

For the happy comradeship and abiding friendships which had here their home, may God's holy Name be praised. Amen.

For those who have gone forth from here to serve God, and work with ungrudging labour, for those whose names have been honoured in Church and State, and for all those who have given their best in peace and war, may God's holy Name be praised.

For all memories of the past which enable and satisfy the present, recalling us to the fresh ardours and gallant hopes of youth, may God's holy Name be praised. Amen.

Let us confess our sins to Almighty God.

A Confession to be said by Minister and Congregation all kneeling.

O God, our Father, we have sinned against Thee in thought, word and deed; we have not loved Thee with all our heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. Have mercy upon us, we beseech Thee; cleanse us from our sins; and help us to overcome our faults; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Minister stand and say: the Congregation still kneeling.

May the Almighty and merciful Lord grant unto you/(us) pardon and remission of all your (our) sins, time for amendment of life, and the grace and comfort of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Then shall the Minister kneel, and say with the congregation the Lord's Prayer.

Our Father, which art in Heaven: Hallowed be Thy name: Thy Kingdom come: Thy will be done, in earth as it is in Heaven: Give us this day our daily bread: and forgive us our trespasses. As we forgive them that trespass against us: and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil; For Thine is the Kingdom the power and the glory: For ever and ever. Amen.

The Minister shall say:

O Lord, open thou our lips.

Answer: And our mouths shall shew forth thy praise.

Minister: O God, make speed to save us:

Answer: O Lord, make haste to help us.

All standing:

Minister: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

Answer: As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be;
world without end. Amen.

Minister: Praise ye the Lord.

Answer: The Lord's name be praised.

Then shall be read together.

PSALM 100

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness, and come before His presence with a song.

Be ye sure that the Lord He is God; it is He that hath made us, and not we ourselves, we are His people, and the sheep of His pasture:

O go your way into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise: be thankful unto Him and speak good of His name.

For the Lord is gracious, His mercy is everlasting: and His truth endureth from generation to generation.

The FIRST LESSON will now be read, the Congregation sitting.

Ecclesiasticus 44: 1-15: read by Dr. H. D. Chambers an Old Boy

The TE DEUM to be sung by the Choir.

The SECOND LESSON will now be read, the Congregation sitting.

Hebrews 12: 1-12: to be read by the School Captain

— T. G. Campbell.

All stand and sing.

HYMN No. 256

O Thou who camest from above
The pure celestial fire to impart
Kindle a flame of sacred love
On the mean altar of my heart!

There let it for Thy glory burn
With inextinguishable blaze;
And trembling to its source return,
In humble prayer and fervent praise.

Jesus, confirm my heart's desire,
To work, and speak, and think for Thee;
Still let me guard the holy fire,
And still stir up Thy gift in me.

Ready for all Thy perfect will,
My acts of faith and love repeat,
Till death Thy endless mercies seal,
And make the sacrifice complete. Amen.

All shall remain standing and the Minister and Congregation shall say: The Apostles' Creed.

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead and buried, He descended into hell; The third day He rose again from the dead, He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence He shall come to judge both the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Holy Catholic Church The Communion of Saints: The Forgiveness of sins: The Resurrection of the body: And the life everlasting. Amen.

The Minister and Congregation all kneeling:

Leader: Let us pray for our School: that there may be found here honour, industry, charity, and courtesy, and the spirit of service.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Response: And let our cry come unto Thee.

Leader: Let us pray for all who hold positions of responsibility here, that they may have a high sense of duty, courage and tact.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Response: And let our cry come unto Thee.

Leader: Let us pray for our friends in this place: remembering any who are in special need (those who are ill or in hospital), and giving thanks for those whose friendship makes us rich.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Response: And let our cry come unto Thee.

Leader: Let us pray for our work: that it may be honest and thorough, that in it we may serve God with all our mind and all our strength.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Response: And let our cry come unto Thee.

Leader: Let us pray for our games and recreations: that in all our doings we may be fair and generous, keen and unselfish.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Response: And let our cry come unto Thee.

Leader: Let us pray for our work for others: that we may give ourselves with our gifts and find in the service of our neighbours the service of Christ.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Response: And let our cry come unto Thee.

Leader: Let us pray for our homes: that we may give them our best, enriching them with all that enriches us, and that they may be full of kindness and happiness and goodwill.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Response: And let our cry come unto Thee.

Leader: Let us pray for all who are leaving this term; that they may carry away only such things as are pure and true, lovely and of good report, and may go out into life not merely to be ministered unto, but to minister.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Response: And let our cry come unto Thee.

Leader: Let us pray for our land and our people, especially for our leaders and those who bear authority that they may exercise their responsibilities with honesty, integrity and fair play.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Response: And let our cry come unto Thee.

Leader: Let us pray for the peace of the world that men everywhere may seek after those things which make for peace.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Response: And let our cry come unto Thee.

The Choir shall sing the Anthem:

Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring — Bach

SERMON: Preached by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Percival Gibson
Lord Bishop of Jamaica

During the following hymn the Collection will be taken.

HYMN: No. 611

O son of man, our hero strong and tender,
Whose servants are the brave in all the earth,
Our living sacrifice to thee we render,
Who sharest all our sorrow, all our mirth.

O feet so strong to climb the path of duty,
O lips divine that taught the words of truth,
Kind eyes that marked the lilies in their beauty
And hearts that kindled at the zeal of youth.

Lover of children, boyhood's inspiration,
Of all mankind the servant and the king,
O Lord of joy and hope and consolation,
To thee our fears and joys and hopes we bring.

Not in our failures only and our sadness,
We seek thy presence, comforter and friend;
O rich man's guest, be with us in our gladness!
O poor man's mate, our lowliest task attend.

Prayer for School: All kneeling.

Bless, O Lord this College: create among us the spirit of comradeship and loyalty to one another; when we are called to obey; let us obey with willingness; when we are called to rule, make us rule with justice; drive away from us all ignorance and hardness of heart, all things dishonourable and unclean. Build us up in body and mind and spirit, till we come to the full stature of the Perfect Man, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall be pronounced the Blessing.

HYMN

Rank by rank again we stand,
From the four winds gathered hither;
Loud the hallowed walls demand,
Whence we come, and how, and whither;
From their stillness breaking clear
Echoes wake to warn or cheer;
Higher Truth and holier good,
Call our mustered brotherhood.

Our's the years' memorial store,
Hero days and names we reckon,
Days of brethren gone before,
Lives that speak and deeds that beckon.
One in name, in honour one,
Guard we well the crown they won;
What they dreamed be ours to do,
Hope their hopes and seal them true.

Brother if with lure unblest,
Tempter wise the past betrayed
Rise once more, to war addressed;
Fair the field, Thy God to aid
Lo, once more the morn begins,
Scatters as the clouds thy sins;
Rise, and bid thy morrow slay
Shades or shames of yesterday.

Forward then our battle go,
Comrades sworn one troth to render;
Life by fellow-life upgrow,
Strong for war, for helping tender;
Strong for war, whom Christ hath led;
Tender for whose weal he bled;
Pure, for mute above us move,
Wings of the immortal love.
