ONDON, Oct. 23.—The Finnish delegation, headed by Dr. Passikivi, arrived in Moscow this morning to resume their talks with the Soviet leaders. The delegation went to the Kremlin at 6 o'clock this evening. The atmosphere was considered hopeful by Finns as the diplomats stepped from the train and were received by Vlandimir Barkoff, Chief of Protocol in the Russian Foreign Office and a handful of minor Soviet officials and the envoys in Moscow the broadcasting networks protest as specimens of Swedish architecture from Revelations 21, and Canon of all Scandinavian states.
